

South Carolina Family and Community Leaders EDUCATION LESSONS

2007 PROGRAM YEAR

Youth and Family Issues

Taking Tea with Family and Friends
Just What is a Quilt All About?
Making Your Wishes Known

Environmental and Health Issues

Food Allergy Basics
Wildlife Control
Be Safe

Nutrition and Food Safety

Making the Most of Our Locally Grown Food
Trans Fats and You
My Pyramid Food Choices

Special Projects

Operation Military Kids

2006-2007 State Project

“Volunteer Outreach to Victims of Violence,” SCFCL “V o vv’s” to make a difference in our clubs, communities, and counties by becoming aware of the magnitude of domestic violence in South Carolina, volunteering in our communities in a variety of ways to improve the situation for victims of domestic violence and learning survival strategies for victims of domestic violence and safety strategies to prevent becoming a victim of violence themselves.

Margaret P Sanders
7489 State Highway 213
Winnsboro, SC 29180
(803) 635-1507

2006-2007 International Project in Common with NVON “Stitches for Survival”

The NVON international project for 2006-2007 was supporting the Tarahumara Indians in Mexico. January 2007 the project was revised to support International Disaster Areas with Sewing Kits. For more information (important kit assembly information and shipping instructions) go to <http://new.gbqm-umc.org/umcor/getconnected/supplies/sewing-kit/>