FCL & 4-H: Working Together to Make the Best Better

Objectives:

1. Participants will have a greater awareness of volunteer opportunities available with their local 4-H program.
2. Participants will provide information on their skills and interests in supporting their local 4-H program.

Introduction: (Please read to the group)

Since its inception, the SCFCL organization has been committed to dedication, education, and service. The 4-H Program is currently celebrating 100 years of positive youth development here in South Carolina. Both organizations share the long and fruitful history in Extension. SCFCL and 4-H have a proud tradition of supporting each other with various events and activities. Next year, we would like to create a stronger partnership between the two groups. Your input today is an important first step in helping to shape this future endeavor.

Activity 1

- Assign a person in the group to serve as the recorder.
- Create a group list of all the ways FCL members have supported and/or assisted with the 4-H program in the past.
- Encourage everyone to be as specific as possible in describing their contributions.
- Remember to make sure everyone gets the opportunity to voice their examples.

Activity 2

- Pass out the Survey of Potential Partnerships to each person in the group.
- Ask anyone interested in becoming more involved with the 4-H program to complete the survey.
- Collect the completed surveys.

Final Step

Mail the list from Activity 1 and the completed surveys from Activity 2 to:

Amy McCune, State 4-H Office, 210 Barre Hall, Clemson, SC 28634

Note

This information will be compiled and used to design a Special Project between FCL and 4-H for 2010.
