Family and Community Leaders

South Carolina

Family and Community Leaders

are affiliated nationally and Internationally through a network of diverse individuals working together to strengthen families and local communities by promoting education and leadership on a wide range of issues:

- Family
- Youth
- Environment
- Health
- Special Projects
- State Project

You Can be Part of This Informative, Active Organization

The family is the most effective and economical unit for rearing children and nurturing adults. Yet, incidents of infant mortality, household bankruptcy, child abuse and neglect, public assistance Dependency, substandard housing and nutritional inadequacy threatens families and communities as well as our state and nation.

Investing in the potential of South Carolina families helps prevent these great family tragedies. And it all begins with just one step - getting involved.

Historical Perspective

SCFCL was organized at Winthrop College in 1921 and has played a key role in promoting legislation and education programs that have resulted in many progressive changes for ALL families in our state. A few examples of groups and issues addressed include: compulsory school attendance; adult education; health; educational opportunities for your minorities; programs for school lunch, immunizations, the physically handicapped and day care; as well as programs to deal with school drop-outs and family abuse.

Local clubs are comprised of members who have the opportunity to gain information to improve everyday life and share knowledge with others. The quest for knowledge is the foundation for the success of our programs. Community-based and Extension-trained volunteers deliver many of our quality and effective programs to fellow community members.
